

The Holy Spirit's Supervision Since the Miraculous Gifts Were Discontinued

Orlando Bible Students Special Study, December 28, 2025

Reference: Vol. 5, pages 206, bottom of the page, to the end of the chapter, page 208

- 1) How did the “gifts of the Spirit” differ from the “fruits of the Spirit” at the beginning of the Gospel Age?—Vol. 5, bottom of page 206 & top of page 207; Acts 14:3; 19:11,12; Romans 15:18,19; Hebrews 2:3,4; contrasted with Galatians 5:22,23; Romans 6:22; Ephesians 5:9; Philippians 1:11; I Corinthians 12:31; 13:1-3

- 2) What are some examples of the “gifts of the Spirit,” and why were they given?—Vol. 5, middle of page 207 to top of page 208; I Corinthians 12:4-11,28-30; Ephesians 4:7,8,11,12; Romans 12:6-8

- 3) Today we still have expounders and teachers in the Church, but how is that different from the “gifts of the Spirit” conferred upon the Apostles?—Vol. 5, bottom half of page 207; Luke 6:13-16; John 6:70; Revelation 21:14; Ephesians 2:19,20; contrast with Acts 14:23 (refer to Rotherham, Young's, or RVIC translations for this verse, along with Strong's or Thayer's definition of G5500)

- 4) Why are the miraculous works associated with the “gifts of the Spirit” no longer necessary?—Vol. 5, bottom of page 207; John 5:39; Acts 17:10,11; II Peter 1:16-19

- 5) Although the “gifts of the Spirit” have ceased, how is the same Holy Spirit still guiding the affairs of the Church at the present time?—Vol. 5, page 208
Provide at least two Scriptures which illustrate how the Holy Spirit is working in us today.
